

Student Code of Conduct - Public Health Summer Institute/Pre-Medical Academy

As a participant of the BCPH Public Health Summer Institute and/or Pre-Medical Academy, I will:

- Enthusiastically engage with the educational content presented in the Public Health Summer Institute and/or Pre-Medical Academy.
- Use integrity and honesty when participating in course quizzes and tests, while not engaging in cheating or other unethical academic behavior.
- Respect the opinions offered by presenters and other participants within the BCPH Summer Institute and Pre-Medical Academy.
- Listen attentively and thoughtfully to all presenters within the Summer Institute and Academy.
- Not use racist, sexist, homophobic, transphobic, xenophobic, sexually explicit, or abusive language, terms or images, swear words, or languages that are generally considered offensive.
- Not participate in, condone or encourage unlawful activity, including any breach of copyright or trademark, or defamation.
- Not engage in sexually explicit acts during my time at the Summer Institute or Academy.
- Not engage in smoking, vaping, or drinking alcohol.
- Not engage in the usage or selling of illicit drugs or cigarettes, vaping devices, and/or alcohol.
- Not engage in selling or soliciting any materials during the Institute or Academy.
- Not possess any weapons or threaten others with weapons during the Institute or Academy.
- I acknowledge that other untoward behaviors not included here can be reviewed by the BCPH administrative board and may result in my dismissal.

I hereby agree to this code of conduct and agree that violation of any of these stipulations may result in my dismissal from the summer sessions and forfeiture of all certificates of achievements, honor transcripts, and other memorabilia provided to participants of the Summer Institute or Pre-Medical Academy.
